NOTES: E.I.C. Service Pistol Match

- Shooters must supply their own "Leg Match" Ammunition. Ammunition must be any safe 230 grain round nose jacketed bullet for 45 cal., and 124 or 115 grain round nose jacketed bullet for 9mm, or any ammunition allowed by CMP. All ammo will be inspected before the shooters are allowed on the firing line. The Match Referee will have the final decision. All triggers will be weighed.
- If the NRA or CMP changes sanctioning fees for match, Pelham Fish and Game reserves the right to change the match fees by the same amount.
- Please note that the above schedule is in the order for the match.
- All competitors should check in no later than 30 minutes prior to the start time. Pelham Fish and Game reserves the right to reschedule any competitor arriving after that time to make room for post entries present at the range. Post entries will be accepted to the range capacity for any relay, but only if such rescheduling does not delay the start of the next relay.
- Any shooter under the age of 18 must have a parent in attendance, or a notarized parental permission letter before they are allowed to shoot. The Match Director will have the final decision.
- Match will be a 30 shot match: 10 shots slow fire, 10 shots timed fire and 10 shots rapid fire.

For your records: Circle the date for which you would like reservations and keep the match program in a safe place. You will be contacted only if there is a problem squadding your selected date. This will be your only record of your selections.
